BIOGRAPHY

Pam Palmater is a nationally-recognized educator, public speaker, media commentator and social media influencer who uses these platforms to educate and empower people to take action on social justice and climate action. Her focus is on Indigenous education, sovereignty and nation building as well as broader human rights and social justice movements. Pam has won many awards for her work including awards in legal advocacy, human rights, social justice and women’s leadership. She is considered one of Canada’s Top 25 Movers and Shakers (Financial Post 2017) and one of the Top 100 Social Media Influencers in the Global Indigenous Community (OpenCanada’s Twitterati List 2018).

PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Pam Palmater is open to sponsorships, collaborations and partnerships with companies, organizations and businesses that are Earth-friendly and socially conscious. Brands that focus on authentic Indigenous, handmade and/or natural products are especially welcome. Potential products include, but are not limited to: food, clothing, jewellery, cosmetics, health products, books, educational products, podcasts and other online services.
